

VISION STATEMENT

Sonnhalter is one of the hottest and leading business-to-business marketing communications firms in the Midwest. Our annual revenues are $5 million and we have 30 FTEs. Our clients include 15 key, blue-chip companies who target the professional tradesman working in markets such as construction, industrial and MRO.

We develop “big ideas” for these clients by utilizing technology to tap into the best talent in the world and to identify the most appropriate delivery vehicles.

The agency’s office is an inspiring space which fosters the collaborative development and creation of these big ideas. It is headquartered in a part of Northeast Ohio which is vibrant with activity and rich in people, places and things to do.
